Liz Squillace, Judge

Liz Squillace, a Rhode Island School of Design graduate, is a Bridgeport-based artist and owner of Paradox Ink (screen printing, public art, and murals) founded in 2002. Her newest public art project is the Painted Stairway of the Broad Street Steps in which she partnered with Bridgeport Generation Now! and the local artistic community. She continues to enhance urban environments by bringing art to public places such as her 180-ft mural in the Bridgeport Train Station.
