EASTON PUBLIC LIBRARY
COMMUNITY ROOM

ROBERT BRENNAN, JUROR

Robert Brennan is an award-winning artist and former professor and university chair of visual arts. The diversity of his personal work, along with his belief that there should be no doctrinaire prejudice for or against a particular style, makes him an ideal juror for a diverse, regional exhibit. Over the years, he has served as sole juror for The Connecticut Water Color Society, The Greenwich Art Association, The Rowayton Art Association, The Guilford Art League, The Easton Art Council, and others. Brennan recognizes that the very act of exhibiting one's work is a statement of faith in the power inherent in the creative act and that there is room for many voices.
